“Vision-in-Outline”— 5-Point Model to Build Back, Better Education

In this mini-workshop, Educational Strategist Dr. Noah L. Riley offers his vision for re-imagining an academic education system supported by shared accountability with mutual respect among all stakeholders. He challenges participants to focus on the power educators can have to influence a culture and processes that support working and learning together to benefit ALL students from various backgrounds with a wide range of literacy skills and abilities. Dr. Riley tailors this adapted presentation to address the challenges of raising the level of academics in any stagnant school or school district. This “Vision-in-Outline” is a 5-Point Academic Model to Build Back, Better Education in America’s schools.

Mini-Workshop Objective
